IT IS A FAILURE

Mrs. Millie Cook-Keyser Sues for a Divorce.

IT CREATES A BIG SENSATION

The Alleged Cruel Treatment and Failure to Provide—Had Even to Ask for Car Fare.

Something over two years ago Dr. J. B. Keyser, the well-known dentist, and Miss Millie Cook, a popular young lady, were married in this city and it was the belief of all who knew the parties that the union would be a most happy one.

Two years' experience, however, apparently demonstrated to Mrs. Keyser that her marriage, at least, is a failure, and she appealed to the courts to unloose the matrimonial bonds. The suit was brought in the Third district court yesterday, and Dr. Keyser was served with the papers.

The parties are widely known, and the news that Mrs. Keyser had sued for a divorce, created something of a sensation among their friends, who were greatly surprised over the turn of affairs.

In her complaint the plaintiff alleges that during all of their married life, without fault or provocation on her part, the defendant has treated her with cruelty to the extent of causing her great mental distress and also seriously injuring her health; that he has failed to provide her with any money to meet the expenses of their household and compelled her to solicit from him even such trifling matters as street car fare; that he habitually deprives her of his society and spends his evenings away from home, leaving her alone; that he has failed to provide her with the common necessities of life and has compelled her to seek and receive assistance from her mother; that the defendant is a dentist and is doing a good business and earning large sums of money amounting to not less than $150 a month above all expenses; and that he is the owner of considerable real estate.

She asks for a decree of divorce and that she be awarded such share of the defendant's property as may be just and $100 attorney's fees, with temporary alimony. Also that the defendant be restrained from cohabiting or disposing of his property pending the suit.

Kaighn & Anderson are the plaintiff's attorneys.

HE THANKED THE COURT.

Leland Sent Up for Eighteen Long and Weary Months.

Over a year ago Charles Leland was convicted in the Third district court of the crime of grand larceny, and a few days later he was brought down from the penitentiary by Guard Ames for sentence. While he was in the marshal's office awaiting to be called into court, Leland took advantage of an opportunity which was presented to escape, and vanished. It has since been learned that he went to Portland, Ore., and in December last he was married. A short time ago Marshal Parsons heard that Leland was in custody at Portland, and Deputy Marshal Doyle was sent after the escaped prisoner, and returned with his man this week. When Judge Anderson was on the bench yesterday morning, Mr. Varian called his attention to the case and asked that Leland be sentenced.

The defendant came forward, and when asked if he had anything to say he replied that his attorney, Mr. Stephens, would make a statement for him. He then presented a statement for the defendant, and stated that Leland had nothing to do with the robbery at all. On his first trial the jury disagreed and his second trial was convicted. When brought down from the penitentiary he escaped and went to Portland, where he married and had led a honest life. He expected to obtain considerable money from his father's estate and was making an effort to lead an honorable life. From his knowledge of the man Mr. Stephens did not believe that he was a bad man and his trouble was the result of a mistake. It had been stated that Leland was wanted in Denver for murder, but this was not true. He was held by the authorities at Portland, not for crime, but as a witness.

The Court—Well, in view of the possibility that you might not have been guilty of actual participation in this crime and all the other circumstances, the sentence of the court is that you be imprisoned in the penitentiary for the term of a year and a half.

Leland thanked the court and retired to begin his life as a convict behind the grim walls of the penitentiary.

BABY IS SICK.

The wonderful expression of a Des Moines teamster's conscience showed his deep anxiety was not entirely without cause, when he inquired of a druggist of the same city what was best to give a baby for a cold. It was not necessary for him to say more; his countenance showed that he was of the family, if not the idol of his life, was in distress. "We give our baby Chamberlain's cough remedy," was the druggist's answer. "I don't like to give the baby such strong medicine," said the teamster. "You know John Olson, of the Watersbury Printing company, don't you?" inquired the druggist. "His baby, when eighteen months old, got hold of a bottle of Chamberlain's cough remedy and drank the whole of it. Of course it made the baby vomit very freely, but did not injure it in the least, and what is more, it cured the baby's cold. It is not necessary to give poisons to cure a cold or for croup either." The teamster already knew the value of the remedy, having used it himself, and was now satisfied that there was no danger in giving it even to a baby. For sale by Z. C. M. I. drug dept.

NEURALGIA CAUSES MUCH INSANITY.

The highest medical authorities of Europe and America have recently decided that a large percentage of cases of insanity is caused by the excruciating pains of neuralgia in the head and face. If any member of your family suffers this torment, induce them to try Ballard's Snow Liniment. One application will afford immediate relief and you will be rid of a dangerous and tormenting disease. Ballard's Snow Liniment is the most penetrating liniment known. It positively cures rheumatism, lame back, contracted muscles, old sores, corns, bunions, etc. It penetrates and opens the pores, drawing all poisonous matter to the surface, restoring and promoting a natural circulation of the blood through the diseased parts.—11.

THE PULP IT AND THE STAGE.

Rev. F. M. Shront, pastor United Brethren church, Mount Kan., says: "I feel it my duty to tell what wonders Dr. King's New Discovery has done for me. My lungs were badly diseased and my parishioners thought I could live only a few weeks. I took five bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery and am sound and well, gaining 30 pounds in weight." Another love, manager Love's Funny Folks Combination, writes: "After a thorough and convincing evidence, I am confident Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption beats 'em all, and cures when everything else fails. The greatest kindness I can do my many thousand friends is to urge them to try it." Free trial bottles at A. C. Smith & Co.'s drug store. Regular sizes 50 cents and $1.

HER FAIR NAME

May Anderson Sues Thomas Venard for Slander.

THE PLAINTIFF PRETTY AND POOR

The Defendant is Along in Years, and Reported Well-to-do—A Good Combination.

A somewhat sensational suit was brought in the Third district court yesterday in which Miss May Anderson asks that Thomas Venard be mulcted in damages for slandering her.

The plaintiff is young, pretty and poor; a combination which will appeal strongly to a jury, while the defendant is well along in years and is reported to be more than well to do.

The trouble grew out of the arrest of a young man named H. I. Miers on April 21, on the charge of fornication alleged to have been committed with May Anderson, the complaint being sworn to by Thomas Venard. On April 22, a deputy marshal broke into Miss Anderson's room in the expectation of finding Miers there, but the latter was at the time calmly reposing in his own apartments in another part of the city. It is said that the officer visited the young lady's home at the direction of Venard, who claimed that Miers would be found with her. The commissioner before whom the case was brought investigated it and dismissed the case without a hearing, evidently being satisfied that there was nothing in it.

Now the fair May is after the portly Thomas, and some racy developments may be expected. Miss Anderson claims to be entirely innocent of the charge made against her by Venard, and intends to force an investigation. In her complaint she alleges that the publication of the libel by Venard at the time of Miers' arrest, damaged her to the extent of $5,000, and she sues to recover that amount. Just what motive the defendant had in swearing out the complaint against Miers does not appear so far, but it is stated that he was snubbed on Miss Anderson, and not being successful in his suit, became jealous and acted as stated.

Mr. Venard is a well-known mining man of Bingham. He is now in this city and was served with the papers yesterday. Baldwin & Tatlock are named as the plaintiff's attorneys.

Dyspepsia

Few people have suffered more severely from dyspepsia than Mr. E. A. McMahon, a well known grocer of Staunton, Va. He says: "Before 1873 I was in excellent health, weighing over 200 pounds. In that year an ailment developed into acute dyspepsia, and soon I was reduced to 102 pounds, suffering burning sensations in the stomach, pain in the back, nausea, and indigestion. I could not sleep, lost all heart in my work, had fits of melancholia, and for days at a time I would have welcomed death. I became morose, sullen and irritable, and for eight years life was a burden. I tried many physicians and many remedies. One day a workman employed by me suggested that I take Hood's Sarsaparilla, as it had cured his wife of dyspepsia. I did so, and before taking the whole of a bottle I began to feel like a new man. The terrible pains to which I had been subjected, ceased, the palpitation of the heart subsided, my stomach became easier, nausea disappeared, and my entire system began to tone up. With returning strength came activity of mind and body. Before the fifth bottle was taken I had regained my former weight and natural condition. I am today well and I ascribe it to taking Hood's Sarsaparilla."

Intense Suffering

Hood's Sarsaparilla cured his wife of dyspepsia. I did so, and before taking the whole of a bottle I began to feel like a new man.
